ORDER:

Government of India, during the year 1995-96 has introduced a programme called National Social Assistance Programme (NSAP) in which one of the components is National Family Benefit Scheme (NFBS).

2. In the reference 1st read above, the Government of India has increased one time assistance under NFBS from Rs.10,000/- to Rs.20,000/- to each family in the event of death of primary bread earner in the age group of 18-59 years from 18th October, 2012 onwards.

3. Accordingly, in the reference 2nd read above, the state Government have issued orders, enhancing the scale of assistance to Rs.20,000/- to 18,700 households under National Family Benefit Scheme and also issued certain guidelines regarding implementation of the scheme.

4. In the reference 3rd read above, Government have amended the orders issued in the reference 2nd read above and decreased the rate of assistance under National Family Benefit Scheme from Rs.20,000/- to Rs.10,000/- so as to extend assistance to more families i.e. 37,400 households duly eliminating the persons who were assisted under Aam Admi Bheema Yojana (AABY) / Janasree Bheema Yojana (JBY) / Aapathbandhu Schemes.

5. In the reference 4th read above, the Chief Executive Officer, Society for Elimination of Rural Poverty has informed that the applications are not being received as desired because persons are applying for Aam Aadmi Bhima Yojana (AABY) and Apathbandu and also the Government of India allocated an amount of Rs.1605.56 lakhs @Rs.20,000/- including 3% admn., cost for the FY 2016-17 for 7,784 beneficiaries i.e. households. Hence, she has requested the Government to enhance the rate of assistance from Rs.10,000/- to Rs.20,000/- per household as per Government of India guidelines issued in the reference 1st read above.

6. After careful examination of the proposal of the Chief Executive Officer, Society for Elimination of Rural Poverty, Telangana, Hyderabad, Government have decided to enhance the rate of Assistance under National Family Benefit Scheme from Rs.10,000/- to Rs.20,000/- per house hold and the guidelines issued in the G.O.2nd read above should be followed in Implementation of National Family Benefit Scheme.

7. This order does not require the concurrence of Finance Department as was already given in the reference 2nd read above.
